

Give Me More of Jesus
By Anna and Ken Behrens

D A7
Give me more of Jesus and I'll give you more of me
D
Melt my stubborn will and touch my eyes so I can see, Oh, Father,
G D
Write your name upon my heart and set my spirit free
A7 D G G
That I might hear your voice a callin' me and follow when you lead.

D A7
1. Now, ole' John drew crowds baptising down at River Jordan's shore.
D
They came to see forgiveness, but he promised even more. He said:
G D
There's One who's coming after me whose shoe I can't untie;
A7 D G D
"He will fill you with the Spirit and in Him you'll never die". And we pray...

2. Well, old John had quite a message for the folks that came to hear:
"I'm not the Messiah, but His day is drawing near", he told them:
"He must grow still greater and my own fame must decrease.
But we'll sing and dance together at the bridegroom's wedding feast." And we pray...

3. Now old John's still crying out today for those with ears to hear.
He stands in living water with a message very clear.
He says "repent, drink deep, and be refreshed. Wash off the desert sand,
For Lord Jesus is our joy, our portion in the promised land". So we pray...
