

I Sought the Lord

Ken Behrens Dec. 81

Am

Am

F

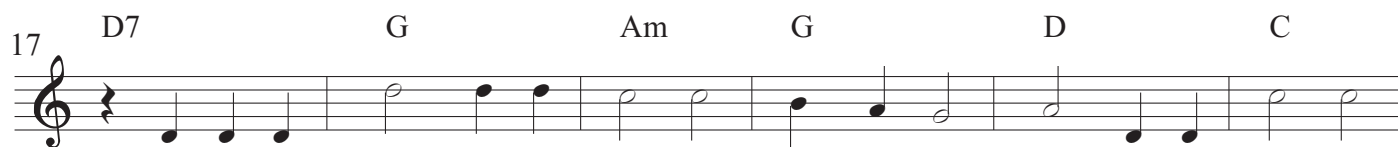

1. I sought the Lord as I suf - fered in pain till my spir - it was
2. I sought the Lord in the dark of a night filled with lone - li - ness,
3. I sought the Lord when the trials of the world weighed my heart till it
5. I sought the Lord with my grav - est pleas since the day I first al - most dead. I cried to the Lord for ter - ror and dread. I cried to the Lord for the felt like lead. I cried to the Lord to raised my head. I cried to the Lord for an heal - ing in pain; "Take my peace" was all that He said.

end of the night; "Take my light" was all that He said.
change His world; "Take my love" was all that He said.
an - swer to these: "Take them me" was all that He said.

4. But if our dreams can re - veal His mes - sage of truth, and if love can ride on the wind, then where lies the soul that's for - sa - ken its youth when it sees there's no end to the sin? DC