

Resting in My Father's Arms

by Ricky Evans, Dick Carman, Ken Behrens

E B7 E

I sought qui - et a - mid the storm. I called to

4 C#m B7 E

you to keep me from harm. When winds were

6 F#m B7

rag - ing a - round me, to on - ly you could I flee, and you

8 E B7 E A

wiped a-way those clouds of gray and ceased the pound-ing in my heart. With on-ly

10 E

you I long to stay seek - ing gui - dance ev - ery day, safe from all the earth - ly harms I seek the com - fort of your arms and you

12 F#m B7

14 E B7 E A

wipe a-way those clouds of gray and cease the poun-ing in my heart. With on-ly you I long to stay, with on - ly you I long to stay.

16 E

18 E B7

1. Rest - ing in my Fath - er's arms safe from an - y
 2. The Spi - rit leads the mel - o - dy, my heart joins in the
 4. So in your gen - tle arms I'll stay.; the song we share will earth - ly harms. Rest - ing in my Fath - er's arms, He's sing - ing sweet to me.

22 E A E B7 E

 har - mo - ny, and joy wells up in - side of me. My spi - rit is set free.
 guide my way, and bring us clos - er ev - ery day 'til I am one with You.

27 E B7 E B7 E

3. You are pre - cious, my sweet, sweet child. Stay and list - en to me a while. Learn of the love that I have for you, that noth - ing on earth can e - ver un - do.

36 B7 E B7 E

to 4